

Presentation Marking Rubrics

Item	Weight	0-40	41-80	81-100
Presentation Style	10	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Generally, the verbal presentation style of the group members indicate that they do not understand what they are presenting 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Generally, the verbal presentation style of the group members indicate that they understand what they are presenting but are still underprepared 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Generally, the group members conducted the presentation well in terms of their verbal style
Slides	10	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The slides look more like an essay with dot points 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Slides indicate a clear and sensible progression of ideas where each topic is well-summarized in point form 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Slides indicate a clear and sensible progression of ideas where each topic is well-summarized in point form Slides are neatly formatted, include an opening slide with the UI logo, a slide introducing the group members, an overview slide, and a closing slide
Basic Understanding	80	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The presentation does not fulfil the basic requirements of the project 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The presentation fulfils the basic requirements of the project 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The presentation fulfils the basic requirements of the project and there is a demonstration of ability in being able to take the project further